

THE WILL TO LIVE THE PERKS OF CANCER THROUGH THE EYES OF A SURVIVOR

$16.95 + S&H

To choose happiness over misery when faced with this type of a situation is a lot easier said than done—I was 25, and abruptly thrown into a world of disease, pain and turmoil. What could I take out of the experience happily? Many things, as is illustrated in my book – the negative brought full circle to demonstrate all of the positive results from my experience. Yes, I went through extreme anger and helplessness on many occasions through my various surgeries and hospital visits, but all I could think about was getting well and to continue on with my 'new and improved' life.

My ultimate goal is to empower and inspire those going through the diagnosis, and living with cancer – to be able to help someone else through their life-threatening situation without as great a struggle. I always say, "Celebrate life and you'll have a life worth celebrating!"
